Take Points, which are Eastern oysters developed in Shoalwater bay, are unlike all others—good at any season of the year. They are fat and delicious. Craw-fish are now just in season and are excellent eating, as are crabs and all the other numerous delicacies served so skillfully at the Toke Point oyster house on Eleventh street.

The regular meeting of the city council takes place Monday night. Among the measures to be introduced will be a resolution by Councilman Nordstrom providing for the improvement of Commercial street between Third and Fifth. When this improvement is made Commercial will be one of the best streets in the city.

The Astoria baseball nine has returned from South Bend, where it met defeat at the hands of the local players, the score being 8-7. The visitors were at a disadvantage on account of the absence of several of their best men, who were away on a tour.

The Astorians enjoyed the trip, despite their defeat, for they were royally entertained by the victors.

A party of visitors arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the Occident. In the party are: Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hubbard, of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hale, of Fargo, N. D.; Miss H. McCormack, of Centralia, Wash.; Miss Hubbard, of McCormick, Wash.; Miss Whitney, of Chicago; Miss Smalley, of Minneapolis; Miss Farrell, Miss Rankin and Miss Mills, of Missoula.

B. H. Franklin, aged 81 years, was knocked down by a passing wagon on Commercial street during the Fourth of July celebration. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where it was found his left ankle had been fractured. He also suffered bruises about the hips. Owing to Mr. Franklin's age his recovery will be slow. At an early hour this morning the hospital physician said the patient was resting easily.

The floats in the parade on the Fourth of July were very attractive, and visitors to the city were loud in their praise of the showing made. The prize winner was the float prepared by the W. C. T. U. This float was a boat draped in pure white, and manned by children. On the oars was the inscription, "To the Rescue." The boat was drawn by two large white horses and attracted much attention. The Clatsop Mill Company's float was an original one. A large wooden cannon was mounted and fired at frequent intervals.

The members of the Clerks' Union were heartily congratulated yesterday for the success which attended their efforts in behalf of the Fourth of July celebration. They then handed between $1100 and $1200, and provided a day's entertainment that is seldom equaled in any city. President Kline and every other member of the union worked diligently to make the affair the success it proved to be, and they are justly entitled to the praise which has been given them. A statement of the financial end of the celebration will shortly appear.

Fishermen over from the north shore yesterday reported that a big run of salmon had prevailed on the Washington side of the river, the previous night, and it was stated that the low boat brought in 16 fish. The salmon taken there were said to have averaged almost 30 pounds in weight. On the Oregon side and in the lower river there was a scarcity of salmon, receipts from the north shore constituting the principal supply of the packers yesterday. A very peculiar species of chinook salmon is now appearing in the river. This fish weighs between 25 and 30 pounds and has a black nose and black tongue. It belongs to the late run and is of fine quality. Every year these salmon come into the Columbia, but in limited numbers. It is generally thought by fish experts that this class of salmon runs into the Cowlitz and nearby streams. Some of the fish dealers do not share the belief that there will be a heavy July run this year, saying the condition of the fish now being caught indicates that the supply is soon to become exhausted. Nearly all the fish now delivered exceed the 25-pound limit fixed by the cold-storage concerns.

Tomorrow the new county officials will assume the management of the affairs of Clatsop County. Judge Trenchard has already taken the oath of office before County Clerk Wherity, and at tomorrow's meeting of the county court the new order of things will commence. The assessor is the only officer who does not go out tomorrow. Assessor-elect Cornelius will assume his duties January 1. This office pays $4 for every day the assessor actually works, and the yearly emolument is about $1250. County Clerk-elect Clinton is required to give a bond of $10,000, as is Sheriff Linville. The bond of Treasurer-elect Holborn is $20,000, while the bond of Surveyor Astbury is $5000. Asked yesterday if he had selected his deputies, Clerk-elect Clinton replied in the negative. H. J. Wherity, the retiring county clerk, has held the office for four years. He has made an excellent clerk, has been accommodating at all times, and the affairs of the office have been judiciously handled. The clerk's duties are very exacting, requiring constant attention, and Mr. Wherity's conduct of the office reflects much credit upon him. His successor, J. C. Clinton, is thoroughly acquainted with the affairs of the clerkship and can be relied upon to make a most efficient officer.

The first meeting of the new county court will be held tomorrow. Several matters of importance will be acted upon, including the construction of the bridge across the Necanicum.

The Clatsop Mill Company's box factory was closed down yesterday, as was the box factory of the Astoria Box Company. The men were given a two-day Fourth of July holiday.

Grace church Sunday school picnic will be held at Fort Clatsop, Lewis and Clark river, on Tuesday next, weather permitting. Any postponement will be announced in the papers.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Andrew Young will be conducted from First Lutheran church, Uppertown, at 1 o'clock today. Rev. Oscar Ostrom, the pastor, officiating. Interment will be at Greenwood.

C. McCollum, of Knappa, was arraigned before Justice Goodman yesterday for assault. The complain witness was a man named Steele, also of Knappa. McCollum pleaded guilty and was fined $25.

The regular monthly meeting of the Prohibition Alliance will be held on Monday evening at the W. C. T. U. hall, on Tenth and Bond streets, at 8:15 o'clock. All interested in this movement are invited to be present. COMMITTEE.

Harry George, son of George H. George, was badly burned on the Fourth by an explosion of powder. The young enthusiast touched a match to a quantity of the explosive and was burned about the head. His injuries are painful, but not serious.

The first through Portland-Seaside train was operated yesterday by the A. & C. R. R. While weather conditions were not favorable for a big crowd, the train had about 250 or 300 passengers. This train always proves popular, affording Portland people an opportunity to spend Sunday at the beach.

The four-oared boat race that was to have taken place on the Fourth of July will be held this morning at 9 o'clock. The start will be made from a point off Flavel's dock. There are several contestants and the race will probably be an exciting one. The committee has offered a handsome medal to the winner.

The strike recently inaugurated by the plumbers of the city has been settled. At a meeting of the contending factions last evening the differences were patched up, and on Monday morning the employees will be at their accustomed places in the shops. As has been stated, the plumbers demanded an increase from $3 to $3.50 per day in wages, and further asked for an eight-hour day, instead of one of nine hours. The employers were willing to concede the increase in wages, but wanted the men to agree to work nine hours. Employers and employees discussed the matter during the past few days, and last night's joint meeting was the result. The employers reiterated their proposal, and it was finally accepted. Under the terms of the settlement the men will receive $3.50 per day of nine hours. This is an increase of practically 20 per cent.

There is still a chance for the people of this city to secure the establishment of a large sawmill. Recently Mr. George W. Hume made an effort to get the Tongue Point millsite. He wanted 1000 feet on each side of the Tongue, the site to be north of the railroad track. Mr. Hume offered $10,000 for the tract, but the owners demanded $15,000. Being unwilling to pay this price, Mr. Hume secured a location at Rainier, where he will put up a large plant. The investor came down the river yesterday afternoon, and when seen at the Occident by a representative of the Astorian stated that it was not too late for Astoria to interest him here. Mr. Hume said he would like to build a mill in this city, but that he could not cover with $20 gold pieces property that was practically worthless. "It was my intention, had I been able to secure the Tongue Point site, to put in a mill that would cut 100,000 feet of lumber daily," said Mr. Hume. "It would entail an expenditure of $100,000 and give steady employment to 150 men. I believe that my offer of $10,000 for the site asked was very reasonable. While I do not care to make any proposals just now, I will say that it is not too late to secure the location at Astoria of the enterprise." Asked whether or not a site at Smith Point would be satisfactory, Mr. Hume made a negative reply. There are plenty of sites available there, but Mr. Hume desires the Tongue Point site. As there is still a chance to secure the location of the sawmill at Astoria, the matter will probably be taken up by the manufacturing committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Push Club.

SUITS OUR CLIMATE. The rapidly increasing use of shingles as covering for the walls of buildings, both to keep out the weather and for ornamental purposes, makes a great demand for a shingle stain which preserves the wood, prevents moss, and retains a fresh, handsome appearance. Particularly is such the case in damp climates. The need is well met in a perfect article made right here in Astoria. Cutbirth's Cresosote Shingle Stains are penetrative, preservative, handsome and durable. They are put up in eight colors and every package guaranteed.

SYMPATHY FOR ENGLAND. In the recent disaster at St. Vincent the United States was among the first to extend sympathy to England and also to offer assistance to the fortunate survivors. Giving sympathy is a very appropriate way of showing our feelings for those in distress, but the person who is unable to eat or sleep on account of a weak or disordered stomach needs more than sympathy. He wants a medicine that will cure him. Then Hestice's Stomach Bitters is needed, because it positively cures loss of appetite, belching, flatulency, indigestion, dyspepsia, insomnia or nervousness. Every sufferer should therefore try a bottle of it at once. Don't accept a substitute. The genuine has our private stamp over the neck of the bottle.

ATTENTION, EAGLES! All members of Astoria aerie No. 17 are requested to be present at the meeting today at 1:30 sharp. Election of physicians and other important business. C. E. FOSTER, Secretary.
